rotor rewards

Rotor Rewards from Airbus Helicopters Canada was designed to address the complete support and service needs of our loyal customers who have come to depend on the reliability and performance of Airbus Helicopters products, programs and people.

For Airbus Helicopters clients across Canada, Rotor Rewards is a comprehensive new program that includes tailor-made support programs, exclusive member promotions and perks as well as new range of discounts and rewards that have been expanded to include our full range of industry leading services.

Available exclusively to Canadian owners and operators of Airbus Helicopters (formerly Eurocopter) aircraft, Rotor Rewards provides a monitored, proactive and customer-focused program that will save you money and time, while streamlining your operations and keep your aircraft flying.

Your single source for support and savings.

Rotor Rewards allows loyal Airbus Helicopters Canada customers to save valuable time by relying on a single, reliable and dependable source for products and services while improving the bottom line with discounts and rewards.

Enjoy an entire spectrum of support tailored to your needs.

A Airbus Helicopters Canada representative will work directly with you to set up and track your membership in the Rotor Rewards program. Your tailor-made program will cover a full range of support services, forecasting your needs in order to save time and reduce your operating costs.

Use more services and your rewards go higher, faster.

Airbus Helicopters Canada's Rotor Rewards provides members with an easy way to boost reward levels across the board through increased use of our industry leading services. Quite simply, the more Airbus Helicopters services you use the more you will save through higher discounts and increased reward points.
